

Amos Greene Homestead Encampment

Event Dates:	October 6-7, 2018
Event Location:	Historic Amos Greene Farm off Rt 112 in Charlestown, RI
Event time:	Friday arrival through Sunday. Day trippers in camp by 8:30am
Purpose of Event:	The Charlestown Historical Society will present a Revolutionary War Encampment at the Amos Greene Farm. Active in the mid-1700's, it was host to Revolutionary War musters and gatherings. Amos and his descendants lived and worked on this land that became a vital part of Charlestown's early history. The day will include skirmishes pitting the Americans and French against the British, a reading of the Declaration of Independence, an historical cemetery visit and daily camp life exhibitions. Also performing will be the Cape Cod Blue Jackets Fife & Drum Corp.
Site Contact:	Norm Desmarais
Bourbonnais Coordinator:	Ari Winograd
1st Person On-Site Contact	TBD
Bourbonnais Dress Code:	All unit equipment. Day trippers pack all equipment in your havresac. Gaiters will be decided Saturday morning.

Attachments

MapQuest Map:	Attached
----------------------	----------