

Grave of the French Soldier: Wreath Laying Ceremony

Event Dates:	November 10, 2018
Event Location:	North Burial Ground in Providence, RI
Event time:	Meet at 9:30am
Purpose of Event:	The Regiment Bourbonnais and the 2nd Rhode Island Regiment will have a wreath laying ceremony at the grave of the French soldiers of General Rochambeau's army who died in Providence during the Revolutionary War. The ceremony will consist of a brief prayer, a wreath laying and musket volleys at the graves of the French soldiers and those of Col. Israel Angell and Col. Jeremiah Olney, officers of the 2nd RI Regt., and that of Stephen Hopkins, signer of the Declaration of Independence
Other Information:	Group breakfast will be held after the ceremony. Location TBD
Site Contact:	Norman Desmarais
Bourbonnais Coordinator:	Ari Winograd
1st Person On-Site Contact	Ian Graves
Bourbonnais Dress Code:	Full uniform with white gaiters. Muskets and gibernes are required

Attachments

MapQuest Map:	Attached
----------------------	----------